

Master Executive Council Resolution

SUBJECT: Negotiations Support

WHEREAS, Flight Attendants at Alaska Airlines play a crucial role in ensuring the safety and comfort of thousands of passengers who travel with the company every day, which greatly contributes to its success; and

WHEREAS, Alaska Airlines has achieved industry-leading financial results, including record profits; and

WHEREAS, Flight Attendants at Alaska Airlines deserve an industry-leading Contract that shares the benefits of the company's success; and

WHEREAS, to reach a Collective Bargaining Agreement, management at Alaska Airlines must be willing to invest adequate economic resources into the agreement; and

WHEREAS, Member involvement and engagement are essential to the negotiations and reaching a Contract that Flight Attendants deserve; and

WHEREAS, the AFA-CWA Constitution and Bylaws state that the official AFA-CWA Pin may be customized to promote solidarity among the membership in support of collective bargaining, and it has become common across the Union to change the color of the AFA pin to red as a signal of support of negotiations.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the MEC declares that the official color of the AFA pin at Alaska Airlines will be changed to red to demonstrate solidarity among Members in support of negotiating an agreement that recognizes the integral role of Flight Attendants in the success of Alaska Airlines.

ADOPTED this 26th day of June, 2023